Methodist Church Notes

The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Reconversion of Peter." In the evening the theme will be "Profession and Practice."

The Woman's Home Mission Society will meet with Mrs. D. L. Joslin on Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The Junior Epworth League will meet on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock in the church vestry.

On Friday evening, October 31st at 8 p. m. Mary Baillie Bartlett of Boston will give an entertainment in the church. Miss Bartlett is an author and entertainer who has achieved wonderful success in New England, and so comes to us highly recommended. There will be a Hallowe'en social and refreshments at the close of the entertainment.

"There is a Green Hill Far Away" by Gounod, was beautifully rendered by Vere Sullivan at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Miss Sullivan returned to her home in Washington, Monday. Her singing has been greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the church people and all regret to have her go away.

A composition entitled "Hear Our Prayer," words and music by Mrs. H. E. Wilson, was given in the morning service for the first time, it was sung by Miss Dunn, Mrs. Joslin, Miss Sullivan and Mrs. Morgan.

Universalist Church Notes

Fourteen were present at the sewing circle held at Mrs. C. S. Tucker's Friday and a large amount of work done. They will meet with Mrs. Tucker on Main street again this week, Friday, October 24th. There will be work for all.

There will be a dinner at the Universalist church next Wednesday, October 29, served by the ladies of the circle. There will be the usual menu of baked beans, salads, hot rolls, pastry and coffee.

The sewing circle of the church will have an all day session at the vestry Wednesday, October 29th.

Congregational Church Notes

Subject Sunday morning is "The Christian Fellowship." Special music by the choir.

Junior C. E. at 3 p. m., subject "What to Study." Seniors at 6.30 p. m., subject "Christianity and Health in China." This will be a missionary meeting with Mildred J. Holmes, leader.

Evening praise and song service at 7.30. Subject, "But He Wist Not That the Lord was Departed From Him."

"The Great Desciples of Jesus" is the subject at the mid-week service Thursday evening. Billy Sunday hymn books will be used.

Mildred Holmes and Mrs. Bessie Foss, delegates to the State Sunday School convention held at Portland, gave interesting reports Suaday evening of the meetings, with brief extracts from the principal addresses.

Ladies' Circle will have their mid-winter sale and supper in the vestry on Dec. 3. Preparations are well underway for this important event.

The Missionary Society meeting was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Gertrude Libby on Paris street. An instructive and helpful program was given.

A Hallowe'en party under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society will prove an attraction to the young people Friday evening, Oct. 31, commencing at 7.30 o'clock. Games and weird stunts suitable to the occasion will have a place on the program. A typical fortune teller will interest all who wish to know the road ahead. All young people of the church above the age of twelve years are expected to attend and bring their elders as guests. A small admission to defray expenses will be levied on the males.

The Ladies' Circle served an excellent baked bean and salad supper in the dining room Tuesday evening and was largely attended. Following the supper, Grace Sage of Boston presented the reading, "Peg of my Heart." Miss Sage proved a very interesting reader, and held the closest attention of her audience. The story is an interesting one and Miss Sage's presentation of the different characters was with dramatic power which showed her wonderful ability as an artist. The reading was in three chapters and a musical program was given between chapters which included duets on the pipe organ by Mrs. H. L. Horne and Ruth Cummings, solos by Mrs. John C. Briggs, with Ruth Cummings, accompanist, and solos by Marjorie Barker with Genevieve Barker accompanist. The musical program was finely rendered and the whole evening's entertainment one of the best.

Shower

A shower was given to Mary Ledger by her shopmates Monday evening, Oct. 13, at the home of Mrs. Percy Proctor. She was greatly surprised upon finding a whole party when expecting to spend a quiet evening with a few friends. The presents were attached to strings and hidden about the house, giving her a merry hunt. She received many useful presents of linen, silver and china and could only find words to express her feelings of gratification in the words of "Thank you—thank you very much, girls."

Refreshments of hot chocolate, fancy crackers and cake were served. Those present were: Alta Hall, Gertrude Hutchins, Mary Fernald, Myrtle Scothorne, Odile King, Carolyne Schoff, Myrtie Morgan, Irene Drew, Charlotte Bennett, Maxine Bennett, Mabel Warren, Iva Merrill, Grace Howard, Evelyn Drew, Lelia Bennett, Gladys Page, Olive Swallow, Leona Swallow, Fonte Brown, Amy Proctor, Gladys Spiller.

Grange Fair and Supper

Norway Grange is to hold its annual fair and chicken pie supper Friday, Oct. 24th. There are to be several tables laden with every desire of the heart, and the members of our grange are doing all in their power to make the affair pleasing and successful.

In the afternoon Adelaide Young presents a program consisting of music, readings, etc. A chicken supper will be served at 6:45, after which two quilts are to be disposed of as usual. Another short program under the direction of Annie Goodwin, lecturer of Norway grange and then the crowning feature will be a good old fashioned dance brimming with sociability with no exclusiveness. This is the star affair of the year for our grange and a large attendance is anticipated. Committees have been previously announced. The general committee on the supper are Worthy Master Abbott and wife, with Hattie Brown in charge of the dining room.

Davis Mystifies Spectators

Davis, the Master Magician, appeared in Norway Opera House, Friday evening as the opening attraction in the Lyceum Course for Norway High School.

Davis had 'em all guessing. The old saying, "Now you see it and now you don't" was exemplified in every act during an hour and a half he was before the foot lights. Water was turned into wine; rings borrowed from the spectators disappeared mysteriously and found in sealed boxes, or around the neck of a guinea pig, the animal apparently coming from a bottle. His new fangled incubator producing a bantam from a frying pan only two inches deep, was an act par excellence.

This wizard had the happy manner of bringing tangible objects from empty air. Any old thing was the same to him. It mattered little whether it was a jar of live gold fish or a bowl of fire, these objects were easily handed out from his magic fabric. A Ford car gathered in from empty space would have caused no great surprise.

On the other hand a bowl of water easily disappeared and an alarm clock passed from his hand across the stage to its home on a side table. This illusion was invented by the versatile performer and has left an air of mystery wherever it has been given.

A little different than the other fellow is the general comment. He worked fast and carried along a line of rapid fire witticism which kept everybody in an uproar. He had the happy faculty of "stringing" but at the conclusion of each trick whatever "dope" one might have had about its solution was wrong. A surprise invariably handed out at the conclusion was his strong point.

The famous trunk escape concluded the performance. Handcuffed, securely tied in a cloth bag and locked in a trunk was no barrier and offered slight hinderance to an appearance in a few seconds. He also returned to the first condition in four seconds and so found after the trunk was opened. Many can't believe it happened, yet have no reasonable explanation.

F. Richard Davis is a native of Lakeport, N. H. He has bewildered the public more than twenty years and good for a long time to come. His stage illusions, mystifying devices and appliances at his home could easily stock a three ring circus.

Unable to enlist, he performed without pay at every cantonment of prominence in this country for the entertainment of the soldiers. So skillful was his act that wherever he went no strong head liners were sent along to pad his "turn." Davis was the whole show, and left sharp witted and keen visioned boys by the thousands as mystified as the two hundred spectators in Norway Opera House.

An assistant who must do the right thing at the proper time is Albert Davis, the "mystery man's" nephew. Both pulling together make the machine go smoothly, in fact their entertainment is the best of its kind given here in many years. A return date would pack the house.

The second entertainment in the course furnished by the Coit-Alber Lyceum and Chautauqua Bureaus will be an instrumental trio. They expect to appear about the middle of November, although the date is not fixed as yet. Another feature will come in December and a large troup of entertainers complete the course in January.

Norway High School will receive the proceeds and apply the sum to improvements at the gym and to athletic furnishings. L. M. Caroll is at the head of a committee in a drive to sell every ticket possible and thus round up a big profit for home investment. Tickets sold to the night of the opening show was sufficient to guarantee all expenses for the entire course. Everything contributed in the future will remain in town and applied directly to the object in mind.

A very low price has been made for the course tickets to stimulate a quick sale. Students are into the game with a dash and have made a systematic canvass, not once but several times.

Mr. and Mrs. Albion L. Buck spent Sunday with Mr. Buck's mother, Mrs. W. S. Buck, at Northwest Norway. Mrs. Buck remained for a few days' visit.

The annual hunting party has been occupying Cinnamon Camp for two weeks, Henry B. Foster, Will Libby, and William Bumpus are among those there, and Geo. Ham of Portland, a former Norway resident, arrived Friday night for the week.

A party at Camp Weeluvit, Lovell, the Stearns Camp, over Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stearns, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Favor, Mrs. H. B. Foster, Mrs. Inez Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Cummings, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Bradbury all of Norway, Dr. and Mrs. Tyson and Mrs. Charles Andrews of Augusta.

Elmer Twitchell is packing apples at Willard Buck's.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Hutchins returned from an auto trip to Worcester, Mass., Thursday, and left Friday for Boston, where Mr. Hutchins is to submit to surgery for the removal of a stone in the kidney. While in Worcester, X-ray pictures were taken, locating the trouble.

Ralph Merrill will have 700 barrels of apples this fall. His orchard shows good care, as Mr. Merrill is one of the farmers who sprays and takes the best of care of his trees. He ships direct to the foreign market, and last year got a good price for his fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buck entertained a family party over the week end at their home at Norway Lake, those present being Rev. N. G. French and son Arthur of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck of Chesterville, Willard Buck and Edward McDuffee of Portland and Ray Stevens of Auburn, all the children and grandchildren gathering for the first time for over a year.

Mrs. Fred Faneuf, who attended the Topsham fair, was hit by an auto while crossing the street, and her ankle run over. She was brought home Thursday night and will be confined to the house several weeks.

Jonathan Holmes has returned from several weeks' stay in Hartford, and is with his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Swett.

Mrs. Edward Carroll is spending the week in Ellsworth with her parents. Her daughter, Ruth Carroll, is having a week's vacation from the Carroll-Jellerson office and is with friends in Sanford for the week.

Florence A. Rideout

Florence A. Rideout, daughter of Bates S. and Rose E. Rideout, passed away at the home of Virgil Dunn Saturday morning, Oct. 18th.

Miss Rideout was born in Norway, Feb. 18, 1890 and has always made this place her home. Graduating from our high school, she entered Bates College and graduated in 1912. While in college she wasted no time and through her persistent work and indomitable will, she fitted herself for one of Maine's best teachers. After teaching a short time in Dresden, she came to the Norway High as teacher in the English department. Her fine discipline and hard work brought good results at once and those who best knew, felt her work was hardly second to any in the State. Her work and influence went abroad and Cony High of Augusta, one of Maine's very best schools, engaged Miss Rideout as teacher of senior English. But the fatal disease had commenced its work, she was unable to leave home.

For two years with courage and great patience she has fought a hard fight, and gone to her reward.

Florence was always loyal to her town, college and friends. Her life was one of service and her greatest joy was in helping others, which she was ever ready to do night and day.

She was a member of the 2nd Congregational Church over which her father was pastor for nearly a quarter of a century, president of Y. W. C. A. in college and active in Christian Endeavor work in her own church.

Flora Smith has been a devoted friend and nurse for two years and has been as faithful in her care and attention as a mother to a child. Miss Rideout is survived by her mother, Mrs. Rose E. Rideout and sister, Edith M. Rideout, teacher of English in Coney High School, Augusta.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 1.30 at her late home on Main street, attended by Rev. M. O. Baltzer, assisted by Rev. Harry W. Rowe, a college classmate. The bearers were H. L. Horne, E. S. Cummings, F. H. Noyes and E. N. Swett. Burial took place at Riverside Cemetery at Lewiston.

Of the freshman class, they are:
Pres.—Howard Horne.
Vice Pres.—Celia Hancock.
Sec. and Treas.—Georgianna Martin.
Historians—Gertrude Witham and Houghton Kimball.

Lowell Henley, 1923, has returned to school.

Charles Wing, formerly of the class of 1923, has entered South Paris High School.

The girls in the Teachers' Course are to try out a new venture. Many students, who live outside the village, eat their luncheons in the building. With a convenient oil stove, the girls hope to be able to furnish these students with a warm drink and if practicable, later to serve warm food.

Elizabeth Bartlett, Mary Jones, Virginia Hall, Madelyn Hayden, Alice Bartlett and Frances Jones spent a strenuous day, Saturday, picking apples on the Fuller farm in Oxford.

Norway High School was well represented at the Congregational church supper which many students and faculty attended.

Edna Merrill, teacher of the Welchville school and a graduate of the Castine Summer School for Rural Teachers, addressed the Teacher's Training class on Monday. Miss Merrill's training, coupled with her four years' experience as a successful teacher, made her lecture of the utmost benefit.

Tuesday afternoon was observed by closing the high school in honor of Miss Florence Rideout, whose funeral was held on that afternoon. Miss Rideout is mourned by the students and faculty, but especially by the senior class to whom she was an inspiration. Some of the pupils and faculty attended the services, while all others remained at home, refraining from appearing on the streets during the hours of the funeral.

Officers of the athletic association are:
Pres.—Orrin Stone.
Vice Pres.—Charles Cummings.
Sec.—Laurestein Foster.
Treas.—Mr. F. H. Noyes.

David S. Knapp, who has been spending the past two weeks with his sister, Mrs. Julian Brown, has returned to the N. S. H. in Togus, for the winter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews and daughter, Nellie Andrews, were in Hallowell over the week end, the guests of Dr. Nutting and family. They made the trip with Prof. G. A. Yeaton, who went to his home in Augusta for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sampson and Winfield S. Cordwell motored to Mrs. Sampson's former home in East Fryeburg, Sunday.

The concert and dance given in West Paris by the Imperial Singing Orchestra was largely attended, many being there from Norway, Buckfield and surrounding towns. The music was appreciated and went along with a dash characteristic of this organization.

Norway High foot ball eleven played their first game this season at South Paris, Saturday afternoon and were defeated by Paris High School with a score 19 to 0. The winners have played four games thus far and unable to score on their opponents until this contest. Under the conditions Norway played a strong defensive game to escape with no greater mark against them. R. Maxim made a clean-up in a 73 yard run which easily landed the game.

Otto Schmuer has gone to Cambridge, Mass., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Freida Barker. Later he will go to Fitchburg, Mass., and spend the remainder of the winter with his daughter Mrs. Alice Adkins and family.

Carroll Bacon of West Paris was in town Monday on business.

The Farmers' Union held a meeting at their store on Beal street, Saturday afternoon. It was voted to put in a bathroom in the upstairs rent and connect with the sewer. It was also voted to buy a carload of grain and flour. L. E. McIntire of East Waterford has bought $2,000.00 worth of grain since the store opened.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

The civil cases assigned or carried forward to the unassigned list were disposed of out of court, consequently little was left on the docket for a jury trial Friday or Saturday.

Thursday and a part of Friday was taken up with a matrimonial disagreement which was an action for alienating his wife's affections, brought by Albert J. Curran of Canton against Jesse Barker of Rumford. McGillicuddy & Morey were counsel for Curran with George A. Hutchins and Ralph T. Parker of Rumford for the defense.

According to testimony introduced by the plaintiff, the breach in the domestic happiness of the Curran home widened beyond repair in October 1917. At this time Curran returned home from a trip to Boston and found Barker sitting in the house with Mrs. Curran. The following day the wife went to Rumford presumably to continue her work of canvassing, but as the plaintiff charges, to be near Barker. She never returned to Canton but purchased a restaurant with money loaned her by Barker, it is charged.

Testimony was introduced by Curran tending to show an undue familiarity of Barker and Mrs. Curran. The eldest daughter, aged 17, gave a circumstantial account of going on two occasions with her mother to Mr. Barker's house in Rumford and staying all night. She also was positive that her mother left her to go into Mr. Barker's bedroom, and stated that she saw her mother there.

The defense was a denial of all charges suggesting familiarity or unfaithfulness. Mrs. Cufran contradicted her daughter's story of the night's proceeding at the Barker house. She denied that her daughter ever went to the house with her and said furthermore she had not been there except when making a house to house canvass. Mr. Barker also denied their ever having been at his home.

The case went to the jury about three o'clock Friday afternoon and they failed to reach an agreement until midnight. The verdict was sealed and opened Saturday morning upon the beginning of court. Mr. Barker was found not guilty.

While the jury were out the civil action of Kalle Heikkenen of Minot vs. Howard F. Cotton was heard and easily concluded in thirty minutes. The action was to recover for milk sold by Heikkenen and shipped to the defendent by rail to South Portland.

It was brought out in the evidence that the milk cans were defective, being old and battered and never had been sealed according to law. A sealer in South Portland tested the cans and it was alleged they averaged a quart short of full measure. At the completion of the plaintiff's testimony, Gerry L. Brooks of Portland, attorney for Cotton, moved a nonsuit, but the court considered it advisable to hear all there was in the case. At the conclusion, Mr. Brooks moved that verdict for the defendent be directed, and it was so ordered.

Two more applicants for citizenship appeared Friday. They took the oath and were admitted under the new law providing for immediate recognition of discharged service men without the period of waiting. They were Dennis L. Dorey of Oxford, a native of Canada, and Ginsaph Umbo of Rumford, a native of Italy.

The civil case of Frank Jannacci, a fruit dealer at Rumford, was heard before the traverse jury, Monday. He was charged by Mike Roman of Rumford with mis-appropriation of article placed in his custody.

The indictment was the outcome of a meeting at Camp Devens while the 26th Division were being demobilized. Roman was a member of Co. B 103d Infantry, and handed souvenirs and several articles of wearing apparel to the respondent, who was visiting camp, to be carried to Rumford and kept until the soldier's return home. It was alleged some of the property was kept in the family and found when the premises were searched and the remainder given to a relative.

The defense made no denial of receiving the property, but as understood by Jannacci this was purely a gift and the goods were taken home with that understanding.

After deliberating an hour and a half, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Criminal Business

The grand jury reported Friday noon, bringing in nineteen indictments, as follows:

Cecil O. Bartlett of Hartford, Burglary.
Katherine B. Mudgett of Norway, Adultery.
Robert Jackson Burns of Pittsburg, Pa., Larceny.
Ella F. Cotton of Rumford, Nuisance.
Frank E. Goff, alias Elwin Goff, alias Elwin MacKane of Norway. Two indictments, larceny, and breaking and entering and larceny.
Daniel Murrey of Rumford, Adultery.
Joe Powers and Ida M. Doyle, both of Rumford. Adultery.
B. S. Crockett of Boston, Mass., Conducting a lottery.
Clyde McKay of Norway. Two indictments, breaking and entering and larceny.
Emma Marston of Paris, Adultery.
Percy F. Morrill of Norway, Desertion of wife and children.
Daniel Smith of Porter, Assault and battery with intent to commit rape.
Arthur Watson of Rumford, Assault with intent to rape.
Joseph Mundi and Mariantonio Fusto, both of Rumford. Lascivious cohabitation.
Frank Janacci of Rumford, Larceny by embezzlement.
Michael X. Mockus of Chicago, Blasphemy.
William W. Jacobs of Paris, Manslaughter.

Saturday the criminal docket was taken up, and a number of the old cases were cleaned off the docket. The prisoners in jail awaiting the action of the court were brought in and arraigned.

Robert Jackson Burns pleaded guilty to larceny of a motorcycle. The case was continued for sentence, and Burns was released on probation.

Frank E. Goff pleaded guilty to indictments, one for larceny of a suit, watch and money, the property of Edgar W. Andrews, at Norway, also to an indictment for breaking and entering the camp of Fred Allen and the larceny of guns. Justice Morrill examined into Goff's history and a sentence of eight months in the county jail was imposed on the breaking and entering, and the larceny indictment was continued for sentence.

Daniel Murrey of Rumford, a colored man, pleaded nolo contendere to an indictment for adultery. He has been in jail about four months. The case was continued for sentence, with the understanding that Murrey shall leave the state, which he agreed to do.

Clyde McKay of Norway, aged eighteen, pleaded guilty to breaking and entering and larceny. The two breaks were at the store of Brown, Buck & Co., where a razor was stolen, and the other at the

SOUTH PARIS

Deputy Bank Commissioner

George C. Fernald of Portland, formerly of the Paris Trust Co. of South Paris, has been appointed deputy bank commissioner in the place of Lydon P. Noble, resigned, and will assume his duties at once.

Mr. Fernald is a graduate of the Ellsworth High School and the Bangor Business College. He was for two years assistant treasurer of the North Conway Loan and Banking Association, two years assistant cashier of the Berlin National Bank, was for two and one-half years teller and bookkeeper at the Mercantile Trust Co. at Portland, was for eight and one-half years treasurer of the Paris Trust Co., which he assisted in organizing and for the past two years has been employed by the Fidelity Trust Co. of Portland.

Beginning next Monday the drug stores will close every evening at 8 o'clock except Saturday. This custom was launched last fall and proved satisfactory.

Henry Fletcher is changing the former engine house building into a double tenement. This was moved from Main street across lots to his land on Maple street about two years ago and has been used for school purposes since.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Wheeler of Manchester, N. H., who have been spending their honeymoon at Bethel Inn, were in town on a short visit with Mr. Wheeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Wheeler.

Station agent George A. Doran, is recovering rapidly from an operation at Portland for the removal of a nasal polypus.

Penley-Swallow

Carroll Penley and Leona Swallow, both of South Paris, were married Thursday evening, Oct. 16, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. C. G. Miller. They are now visiting relatives of the bride in Sherbrooke, P. Q., for a few days, and will probably return sometime this week. Mr. Penley is the youngest son of Mrs. Jennie L. Penley of High Street and the late Charles R. Penley. He is in the employ of the Paris Manufacturing Co. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Swallow of Elm Hill. They will make their home with Mr. Penley's mother.

Mrs. Rebecca W. Lowell

Mrs. Rebecca W. Lowell died early Saturday evening at the home of her son, Harry I. Lowell, in South Paris, where she had been less than a week. She had been in feeble health more than fifteen years and was unable to make the trip as she intended from her home in Bolster's Mills to her winter home in Roxbury, Mass., and stopped at the home of her son instead.

Mrs. Lowell was born in Buxton 71 years ago, the daughter of Huston and Mary Elden, but from the time she was two or three years of age made her home with her grandparents, William and Sally Haskell, at Bolster's Mills, and up to the time of her death retained possession of the old homestead. She married Herman E. Lowell of Harrison about fifty-one years ago, and they lived in Bolster's Mills until the death of her husband several years ago. Since his death, she has spent the winters in Roxbury, Mass.

She attended the Methodist church and was a member of Crooked River Grange.

Mrs. Lowell is survived by three children, Harry I. Lowell of South Paris, Albert E. Lowell and Myrtle E. Lowell of Roxbury, Mass., four brothers, Fred C. Elden of Haverhill, Mass., Clarence A. Elden of Buffalo, N. Y., John N. Elden of Oxford, and Arthur S. Elden of Medford, Mass., and one sister, Helen Elden of Lynn, Mass.

The funeral was held at Bolster's Mills at 1 o'clock Tuesday, and burial at that place.

Mrs. Elizabeth Edgerly and Mrs. Lizzie Millett attended the Grand Lodge at Portland as delegates from Mt. Pleasant Rebekah Lodge. Mrs. Edgerly received the Grand Lodge degree.

A double arm semophore has been installed at the Grand Trunk station, to replace the antiquated signal "target."

Glenna Starbird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Walter Starbird is recovering from a severe illness and able to go out doors in fine weather.

Mrs. Charles Tarbox

Mrs. Margaret N. (Stockwell), wife of Charles Tarbox, died Monday morning at her home on High street, South Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Tarbox came to South Paris from Philadelphia in 1912. Mrs. Tarbox had been in feeble health several years from the effects of a shock, and suffered another slight shock since coming here. She was a native of Sutton, Mass., where she was born 75 years ago. She married Mr. Tarbox in 1866. The husband and one son, Seth H. Tarbox of Easton, Pa., survive. The funeral was held Tuesday at her late home and the remains taken to Sutton, Mass., for burial.

Miriam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton C. Wheeler, celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday with a party in the afternoon. Seventeen guests were present, most of them scholars in her grade in the Porter street school. Refreshments were served, and games made the time pass quickly. A number of birthday remembrances were received by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Parlin returned Monday from Portland where Mr. Parlin has been receiving treatment at the St. Barnabas Hospital during the past three weeks. His condition shows marked improvement and the family are encouraged over his decided gain in strength. They are visiting Mrs. Ellen Blake and Mrs. Elizabeth Edgerly for the present.

County Attorney Frederick R. Dyer, John H. Dennis, Chief of Police at Rumford, and Constable Abe Stern of Rumford made a record automobile trip to Boston last week. They left the court house with Carl Dunham as chauffeur at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and arrived at South Paris the next afternoon at 2.30 with an interpreter for the "blasphemy case." The party had no sleep and stopped only to procure meals and find the man.

Jesse Stiles, Guy Swett and Harland Damon have returned from their hunting trip in Gilead.

Ruth Bolster, Nellie Jackson and Rev. C. W. Rogers from the Congregational church, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor from the Baptist; Mrs. Mildred Cole, Rev. and Mrs. D. F. Faulkner, Dr. C. L. Buck, Mrs. E. O. Millett and Mrs Helen Briggs from the Methodist and Mrs. Elizabeth W. Morton from the Universalist Church were among those who attended the State Sunday School Convention at Portland.

Philip Jones of Portland spent the week end with his parents.

HELPFUL WORDS

From a Norway Citizen

Is your back lame and painful?

Does it ache especially after exertion?

Is there a soreness in the kidney region?

These symptons suggest weak kidneys.

If so there is danger in delay.

Weak kidneys get weaker fast.

Give your trouble prompt attention.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Your neighbors use and recommend them. Ask your neighbor?

Read this Norway testimony.

Mrs. A. L. Sanborn, Beal St., Norway, says: "I am perfectly satisfied Doan's Kidney Pills are a dependable medicine to relieve ailments resulting from disordered kidneys. I used them a few years ago and gave them a thorough trial. Since then I have had no return of kidney complaint and on that account I place a great deal of confidence in Doan's."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy get Doan's Kidney Pills the same that Mrs. Sanborn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 43—44

THE MAN BEHIND THE SMILE

"I don't know how he is on the creeds—
I never heard him say;
But he's got a smile that fits his face,
And he wears it every day.

"If things go wrong he doesn't complain,
Just tries to see the joke.
He's always finding little ways
Of helping other folk.

"No matter if the sky is grey,
You get his point of view
And the clouds begin to scatter
And the sun comes breaking through.

"He sees the good in every one,
Their faults he never mentions.
He has a lot of confidence
In people's good intentions.

You'll know him if you meet him,
And you'll find it worth your while
To cultivate the friendship of
The man behind the smile."

ON THE ROCKS

My neighbor talks of rocky times
And tells me when I'm writing rhymes
To tell the people good and strong
The way we have to get along.
Prices every day advance—
I'm wearing patches on my pants.

The wolf is lurking round my shack,
With shivers running up my back.
I much decline such times as these,
Of sailing on life's stormy seas.
Each day the sky looks cold and drear,
Frigid days are drawing near.

I seem to hear the sign board creak
While snow is blowing down the street.
We're burning now the garden fence;
We killed the dog to save expense,
The cat has got a peaked tail,
He's looking thinner than a rail.

They're gone, those sunny days of June,
My wife has played the cooper's tune.
The prices paid for meal and corn
Are not so high since I was born.
Faded flowers are in the lane,
Winter's coming once again.

The roof is leaking overhead,
We live on mush and Johnny-bread,
The chickens stretch their necks and scan,
And peck at a tomato can;
They gather round my door in flocks,
We'll soon be stranded on the rocks.

KEEP HOUSEHOLD BOOKS

It must be admitted that business system is desirable in the home, for the very good and simple reason that manifestly you cannot carry on successfully any kind of business with out more or less bookkeeping. But often you will hear some easy going housekeeper say, "that is too much trouble; I have enough other things to do, without bothering with accounts. Besides, what's the use? It costs you just so much to live anyway, and keeping accounts won't make the amount any less."

Lazy or inefficient folk are seldom at a loss for self-justification of this sort. Some of us can remember the old fashioned country store-keeper, who used to spend most of his time sitting on a box whittling or gossiping with the loafers, when he should have been studying his business. This cheerful soul held much the same view as the slack house-keeper.

But we do not see much more of this merchant. He has long ago been put out of business by his enterprising competitor who learned the value of good bookkeeping.

The answer to those who would shirk home account-keeping is simply this; you cannot plan your affairs with any certainty unless you know about them, and you cannot know about them unless you keep records of them.—Thrift Magazine.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

LETTER ON BASEBALL

i bet youl be some surprized to get this but hal seys you no lard just writ me a letter about the doins up whare he is this summer and it had a lot of the old base ball dope in it so you know lard wen it comes to sports that me old pump begins to work and gits me skin all a tingling so i take my pen in hand to drop you a few lines and i hope they find you well. when a feller nose a lot a fellers in the burg whare he is he starts to wonder wonder hows everybudy and wat theys doin. you no how it is yourself lard and thats me especialy wen it comes to things that are sports like baseball and poker etc. i was down to that burg a few years ago making shoes but that was befor that ship down thare changed hands. those was good baseball days down thare a feller by the name of leith put a team over that was rite and everybody was going over to the troting park every sat. and believe me lard it was a regular burg then fer baseball but you no how it is yourself lard wen a feller gits tings goin rite the wise ones always thinks hes makin a foretun and a lot of those birds hate to see anbudy save a nickle so some of the wise birds seys lets put on a team of hour own and grab all this easy kale fer ourselfs. thats wat they tryed to do lard and you no what always happens. well the wise birds gumed the cards and leith and his gang quits the burg and fer a number of years they had a lot a sand lot artists down thare and every team they stacks up agist made em look like a bunch a pikers. the burg then went on the fritz fer awhile fer the boot mill cleaned up a pil a dust and quits so this is the first time ive heard from thare. well lard i was over to haverhill awhile ago and i meets up wid some a the old lunch room gang an who comes in but old joe and jimmie and so wes order up the eats and has one a those ol smoke talks ove in the cornar. joe seys to me lard billys down thare with the ham and eggers lettin the cool main brezes air out his pant legs an trying ter run a ball team an give the people some reel stuf an then he tells me about som bunch a birds calling emselfs lions or some other kind a birds from ward 5. joe seys this gang has a park of thare own only its like goin out a town ter see a game as its outside the city limits. then joe seys to me lard this gangs about 10 managers an one of em umpires the games.

gee lard that must be a bad bunch to run up against an in hals letter it seys your team is playing this gang a animels fer the gate receats but i cant figure out wy any 2 teams can git very rich on the suport that buncch a sports gives yuh and i bets that wen they gits the doe all counted up thare wont be enuff ter buy a new set a bats fer the boys. say lard hav they got the same old sand bags up thare fer bases that they had back in leiths days. sometimes a feller had ter run down in rite field ter git on. then wen the game was haf over anthe players was all tired our theyd bring em up near the home plate an then theyd hav a talkin be about it. and does the bunch a sports along the 1st base line all want ter sit out on the diamond or have they pensoned off those old rumatics wit those nickle stars an put in one good live wire ter kep the rode ter 1st open. but i supose lard those stars are the only brite spots in those fellers lives and so they let em kep em and hal seys barb austin is callin the old silk oloughlin stuf tell billy fer me lard that barbs a good scout but ter watch him fer he gets some feller to put his doe on one of the teams and of corse lard you no wen a fellers got a few bils lade against a team that his old hart is leaning a little and somehow or other they need glasses wen it comes to a close decision on the bases, now lard be sure and tip billy on this fer i no barb an you no lard he mite bet on the zbras. say lard i bets i can come up thare an tame that bunch a wild ones an if billy needs any player il tip him off to a swel acter not one a these broadway kind but baseball acter. now i dont want any rake fer this insid stuf lard and you tell bill its free gratis. tell billy to git tarzan of the apes up thare. theres a gent thatll put a krimp in thare caremels for em. well lard im riting this in the p. o. for the ink and paper is free but you no lard they givs yer no chairs ter set in so my feet get tired. drop me a line and give me all the insid stuf on the big serys.

p. s, i am puting in a stamp an dont get me wrong lard. dont think i think you cant aford a stamp but im anxious ter here from you.

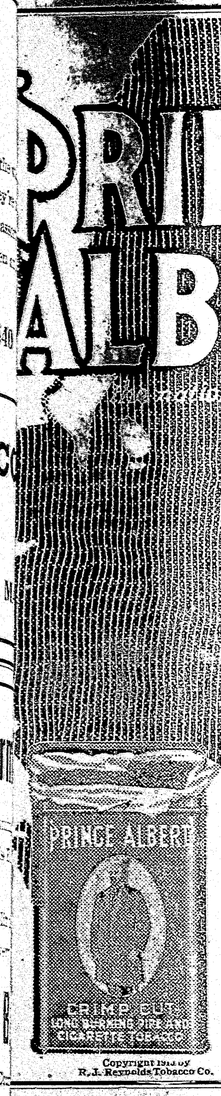
PRINCE ALBERT

The National Joy Smoke



Copyright 1919 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

TALK about smokes, Prince Albert is geared to a joyhandout standard that just lavishes smokehappiness on every man game enough to make a bee line for a tidy red tin and a jimmy pipe—old or new!

Get it straight that what you've hankered for in pipe or cigarette makin's smokes you'll find aplenty in P. A. That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't any more make Prince Albert bite your tongue or parch your throat than you can make a horse drink when he's off the water! Bite and parch are cut out by our exclusive patented process!

You just lay back like a regular fellow and puff to beat the cards and wonder why in samhill you didn't nail a section in the P. A. smokepasture longer than you care to remember back!

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold. Toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and —that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Never too Early to Enter Upon Education in Music

With the player piano, the ability to produce music is placed ready made, in the hands of even the very young. They are encouraged to develop a love for it and a desire to produce it. The interest thus awakened never wanes. The influence of it will last through all their lives.

The Player Piano is as dear to the heart of the growing child as its most treasured toy. It is equally attractive in later life. It is a constant source of pleasure and improvement to the whole family.

Built upon honor, and many years of piano-making success, it is the instrument ideal for the home. Compared point by point in all elements of piano construction, it stands the highest tests that can be applied.

To Share in Estate

Mrs. Cora A. Whitten, Mrs. Mabel L. Lane, Mary Stearns of South Woodstock are to share in the will of their aunt, Jeannette A. Moulton of Hampton Falls, N. H., a Boston High School teacher, who died suddenly last Wednesday.

Miss Louise Clark of Boston, her most intimate friend and closest associate during her teaching in Greater Boston is given the homestead farm at Hampton Falls, with all livestock, farming implements and house furnishings, not otherwise disposed of and also the sum of $20,000.

Miss Clark is also given $1000 in trust, the income to benefit an aunt of the testatrix. Nan A. Stearns of Boston. At the aunt's death the principal goes to Miss Clark.

After these bequests and a number of other smaller ones have been fulfilled, the residue of the estate is to be divided equally among seven cousins, Sarah U. Smith and Justin E. Moulton of Exeter, N. H., Howard E. Moulton of Hampton Falls, N. H., Mrs. Whitten, Mrs. Lane and Miss Stearns and Albert A. Pollard of Minneapolis.

Perl Weymouth is picking apples for J. F. Lord. Mrs. Hattie Haskell, Mr. Lord's housekeeper, has gone to Brunswick to pack up her goods preparatory to moving to North Waterford.

Mr. Crouse is moving his goods from his former home here to Fryeburg.

Not many apple buyers as yet. The apples seem to be a drug on the market at present.

"Some men just can't pay a bill without kicking," says an exchange. The kick, we presume, is in proportion to the size of the foot and the bill.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

HARKEN, BACK ON THE PAST

Twenty-four years ago this Week.

Ralph Lasselle, who was badly injured while playing with a dynamite cap some time since was taken to the Maine General Saturday for eye treatment.

Dr. H. L. Bartlett and wife from Fryeburg are in town this week. It is understood they contemplate locating here.

The stone making the foundation for the new shoe factory is being hauled from Elm Hill. Chas Pride gave the contractor all he needed with plenty to spare.

Ansel G. Dudley, the foreman in charge of the factory foundation, injured his hand severely in the derrick requiring the amputation of the index finger.

T. R. Hague of Waldoboro performed the last bricklaying job on the county buildings when he set the heavy iron jail doors Wednesday. On July 3 he laid the first brick.

J. G. Rich of Bethel is scouring the county for live rabbits. He has a 200 animal order from New York to be filled this week if possible.

The jail at Paris Hill is so crowded that four prisoners are occupying one cell.

A bumper potato crop is being hauled to the Fryeburg depot for shipment. Many thousand bushels were harvested bringing 25c per bushel F. O. B.

Geo. Thomas shot a large moose in Andover, Saturday on the lake road three miles above Smith's Mills. The animal had been trailed for several days and drew many shots before giving up.

The annual supper and entertainment in Norway Grange hall by the students of Norway High will be given in November as a Thanksgiving fair, with appropriate setting. They will have a vegetable table for the boys a candy and fancy table for the girls; with fortunes and mystery served under gypsy surroundings. A tea room open during the afternoon will prove a new feature at this time. One of their big suppers will be served at 6.30 p. m. with food enough and to spare. Evening entertainment will include selections by the girls chorus and a farce "The Doughnut Corporation" presented by the sophomores. Decorations will change the hall into a miniature forest. It is planned to give away a large cake to the person showing the best judgment in a guessing contest, the prize will be placed on exhibition in one of the store windows.

STATE OF MAINE SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT IN EQUITY
Oxford ss.

Tobias L. Eastman vs. Eastman & Son

To the Supreme Judicial Court:

Tobias L. Eastman, of Fryeburg, in the County of Oxford and State of Maine, complains against Eastman & Son, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of said State of Maine, and having its place of business at Fryeburg in said Oxford County, and says:

1. That the plaintiff is President of said Eastman & Son.

2. At a meeting of the stockholders of said corporation, legally called therefor and holden at said Fryeburg on the twenty-sixth day of July A. D. 1919, the said stockholders voted to dissolve said corporation.

3. There are existing assets to the amount of about fifty-five hundred dollars ($5500.00), and with no liabilities known to your plaintiff.

Therefore the plaintiff prays:

1. That said defendant corporation may be dissolved and terminated.

2. That a receiver or trustee may be appointed to collect and take possession of the assets of said corporation, convert the same into money by sale, apply the proceeds to the payment of such debts, if any, as may exist against the corporation, and to the final settlement of all its affairs.

3. That the plaintiff may have such other and further relief as the need of the case may require.

4. That such notice of this bill may be given to the defendant corporation, as the court may see fit to issue.

Dated at Fryeburg aforesaid, this fifth day of August, A. D. 1919.

TOBIAS L. EASTMAN.

State of Maine, Aug. 5, 1919.
Oxford ss.

Then personally appeared Tobias L. Eastman, and made oath that he has read the above bill, and knows the contents thereof, that the same is true to his own knowledge, except the matters stated to be on information and belief, and that, as to those matters, he believes them to be true.

Before me,
EDWARD E. HASTINGS,
Justice of the Peace.

HASTINGS & SON,
Solicitors for the Plaintiff.

STATE OF MAINE
Oxford, ss. Supreme Judicial Court
October Term, 1919.

Upon the foregoing bill of complaint it is ORDERED on this second day of said term that notice of the pendency of said bill be given to all persons interested by publishing an attested copy thereof with this order thereon once a week for three successive weeks in the Norway Advertiser, a newspaper published at Norway in said County of Oxford, the last publication to be at least fourteen days prior to the first Tuesday of December 1919, that all persons interested may appear on said first Tuesday of December, 1919, at ten o'clock A. M. before a Justice of said Court at the court house in Paris in said County of Oxford and show cause if any they have, why the prayer of said bill should not be granted.

JOHN A. MORRILL,
Justice Supreme Judicial Court.

A true copy of bill in equity and order of court thereon.

Attest: DONALD B. PARTRIDGE, Clerk.

"Gets-It" Peels Your Corns Right Off

Two Drops Will Do It Without Fuss or Trouble. Never Fails.

There's only one way to get rid of a corn, and that is to peel it off as you would a banana skin. There is only one corn remover in all the world that does it that way, and that

There's No Corn "Gets-It" Will Not 'Get.' is "Gets-It." It is because of this fact that "Gets-It" is today the biggest seller among corn-removers on this planet. It means the end of "corn-fiddling." For hard corns, soft corns, very old corns, young corns, corns between the toes and calluses, it means a quick, certain finish. "Gets-It" is applied in 2 or 3 seconds. All you need is 2 or 3 drops. As easy to do as signing your name. It does away forever with tape, plasters, bandages, knives, corn-diggers, scissors, files and blood-bringing razors. Ease your corn-pains, be corn-free at last. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Norway and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by F. P. Stone.

An Internal Treatment For Piles (Hemorrhoids)

Gives absolute relief from all pain and suffering. Has never failed. Guaranteed.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was no remedy for their case.

Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist, that taken internally, passes unchanged through the stomach and intestines, and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing antiseptic action, it first allays and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles causes them to heal and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two or three days, even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments and really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the little trouble to obtain to be rid of piles forever.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription.

YOUR CHILDREN NEED LAXATIVE

The children need your closest attention, especially after "stuffing" themselves with sweets, etc., at a party or the like!

They are liable to get up in the morning complaining of cramps, bad tasting mouth; liable to have puffed eyes from restless slumber; feel tired and cranky; distempered and whimpering. Act promptly. Give them a dose of Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, which millions of mothers were given by their parents, and who themselves are administering today, to their little ones.

Only the purest of herbs are used—no harmful drugs—will relieve pleasantly the ordinary cases of children's illness, constipation, —worms, etc.

Symptoms of Worms: Constipation, deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly, with occasional griping and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Mrs. Wm. G. Bonin of Caddo, Oklahoma, wrote regarding Dr. True's Elixir: "We have used it for our children for the last twelve years, and certainly know the value of it."

The Story of a Turret Captain

Promotion in the Navy comes quickly to those who qualify for higher ratings. In March 1899 A. F. Nilsson enlisted in the Navy as an Apprentice Seaman, 3rd class. In April 1907 he was rated Chief Turret Captain. His pay today is $165.76 per month.

A man's life—among men!

Reel them off—"Rio", Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inexhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a welcome man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.

Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play. These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities, of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.

And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect. The Navy builds straight men—no mollycoddles.

Enlist for two years. Excellent opportunities for advancement. Four weeks holidays with pay each year. Shore leave to see inland sights at ports visited. Men always learning. Good food and first uniform outfit free. Pay begins the day you enlist. Get full information from your nearest recruiting station. The "Autometric" Carburetor

YALE

Made by The Yale & Towne Mfg. Co.
STAMFORD CONNECTICUT

Automatically—

The correct mixture for all speeds for any car

THAT'S something you've always wanted in a carburetor, but never found.

The "Autometric" Carburetor does it.

From the moment you open the throttle until you finish your run, the "Autometric" Carburetor feeds your engine the correct mixture for whatever speeds you may travel.

Your engine gets just the amount of fuel that is actually necessary for whatever speed you happen to be going, and no more.

And the result is more power and greater flexibility of control, up to 30% more mileage, from your gasoline, at least 20% less gear shifting (because you get the power in the pinches, when you need it) and undue wear and tear on your motor is prevented by having engine vibration reduced to a minimum.

Step in and we'll arrange to have your own garage man put an "Autometric" on your car on approval.

Then you'll know what real motoring comfort is.

greatest of the housewives' problems? Why, unexpected company gives me, or used to give me, a fit of nervousness!"

She was a practical looking woman, her face softened by a contented life among young folks. She was one of those fine women, typical of New England, and her thrift and good table had made her the leader of the younger set at the summer colony. "The girls" had fallen into the habit of stopping each morning on her big veranda, on their way to market, and household topics were subjects of discussion.

"You mean that unexpected company no longer disturbs you—with the poor marketing conditions here at the lake? How do you do it?" asked one of the young women.

"I'll tell it to you in two words," laughed the woman. "National Biscuit Company. I'll give you my recipe. I am acquainted with a number of good products—their fine Uneeda Biscuit, Royal Lunch Biscuit, Premium Soda Crackers, Graham Crackers, etc. I do not have to bother about what to serve for the dinner. I have National Biscuit Company products have added at least twenty per cent. to the comfort and enjoyment of my summer vacations."

With fear and trembling I placed them before my newly introduced guests in place of bread.

"They were the sensation of the evening and have since been my salvation. Unexpected company no longer worries me, and I do not have to work in the kitchen every evening before the dinner. EAST FRYEBURG.

News of the death of Arthur P. Childs has been received. He owned the Anderson place and has spent some of his summers here.

W. B. Lord has found a bee tree containing a good quantity of honey.

We have at least one kind hearted neighbor. A deer got entangled in the the woven wire fence of W. B. Warren's garden. He had ample opportunity to kill the deer but being an old time wrestler he believed in fair play and would not take advantage of the situation, while he was at the house to see if the others wanted him the deer made his escape.

The last of the dancing school was held Thursday evening. The first assembly was held Oct. 23 a good orchestra furnished music.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanborn of Bridgeport, Conn., have been the guests for a few days of his grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Sanborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Gould of Portland, Isaac Gould of Limington and Mrs. Ethel Woodard of Newport were calling on friends in the place Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Merrifield is spending a few days in Sanford with her son, Charles and his wife.

FRYEBURG

Mrs Mary Eleanor Tarbox of Fryeburg Natl' Patriotic Instructor Ladies' G. A. R. has issued orders requesting all the State Patriotic Instructors from Maine and California to confer with the school authorities with relation to the arrangements of suitable memorial programs to commemorate the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt which occurs Oct. 27. It is suggested that the pupils write essays on his life and arrangements have also been made to present many pictures of him to the schools. Mrs. Tarbox has issued booklets containing quotations from his writings which will lend interest to the occasion, one of the booklets includes a poem written by Mrs. Tarbox when the much lamented Ex President died. The fact that Col. Roosevelt was always such a loyal true friend to the Civil War Veterans renders it particularly appropriate that the request for this tribute to his memory emanate from the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mrs. Tarbox has spent much time in arranging these programs.

Postmaster John Hutchins, wife and daughter and Mrs. R. T. Chase, Mrs. Hutchins, who is spending the winter with them motored to Portland for the week-end

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Marsh of Portland spent Sunday at the Arguenot guests of Mrs. Thomas.

Funeral of Noted Man

The funeral services of Atherton Bernard Furlong were held Sunday afternoon at the Universalist church, Rev. C. G. Miller officiating. The bearers were Charles S. Akers, Frank Kimball, Frank H. Noyes and Herman L. Horne all of Norway. Interment was in Pine Grove Cemetery, according to his last wish.

In the death of Mr. Furlong, which occurred at his studio, Toronto, Canada, a noted artist, distinguished for his remarkable versatility in singing, painting and writing has gone. He was born in Greenwood 70 years ago. Here he obtained his early education in the district schools of Greenwood and the academy at Norway. At the age of 16 he started out for himself and first in Buffalo, then later in Boston, worked hard to obtain a musical education. Boston knew him in the early days of his career, when as a youth of 22, he became a member of the Apollo Club and also assumed the musical directorship of Park street church during the pastorate of the Rev. W. H. H. Murray. There among those under his instruction were Lillian Norton (Nordica), and Anna Louise Carey, one of America's most noted church singers. Shortly after arriving in Boston he took stock of his possibilities and sought an audience with Mme. Rudersdorff, Richard Mansfield's mother. Upon hearing her fees for lessons he declared he would teach himself, and although Mme. Rudersdorff told him he was a "fool," he persevered in his determination.

Some of his young friends in Boston were medical students, with whom he attended clinics. Through his study of anatomy he worked out the physical principles of voice production—just as later he found out for himself the colors of his first painting. Later Mr. Furlong was soloist in a Chicago choir with Dudley Buck as organist, subsequently singing under the same director at Holy Trinity in Brooklyn. About this time there was an opportunity for an oratorial tenor to obtain an opening in that field in England. The aspirants were required to sing before a committee, one member of which was Mme Rudersdorff. Mr. Furlong won the competition and took occasion to remind Mme. Rudersdorff (who had not recognized him) that he was the same self-taught lad whom she had pronounced a "fool." Thus Mr. Furlong was selected out of 54 tenors to succeed at that time the late Joseph Maas. In England he studied with Alberto Randegger. His career in England was marked with all possible honors, notably at the Sacred Harmonic Society in London, the oldest musical society in the world and many times at the Royal Albert Hall. Among his close friends with whom he sang were Simmes Reeves, Santley, Mme. Albani and Adelina Patti, singing with Patti at the Royal State Concert at Buckingham Palace.

As a painter, Mr. Furlong was known in both America and England, as an artist of landscape and animal life. His work ranks with the leading painters of the past centuries. Of his many works, perhaps the painting of "Jerry" which sold for $15,000 from the Chaus Galleries in New York about 1887, is the masterpiece of his animal subjects. This is a life size painting of a bull belonging to the herd of the Duke of Northumberland. Among the Hemlocks owned by W. E. E. Stokes; Greeting the Morn, owned by Charles F. Yerkes, Chicago, and The Midnight Watch owned by Hanna J. Noyes are among many of his noted paintings in this Country.

His work is distinguished by great individuality, of refinement and delicacy. Always an indefatigable worker, time found him creating some of his strongest works the past summer, standing at his easel only two days before death softly took brush and pen from the hand of the great master, and stilled the sweet music of which he had given so freely; for it seemed his great joy in life was to give of his talents and to encourage youth in the realization of artistic ambition.

After teaching in London and Berlin, he returned to America and for the past seven years has conducted the College of Vocal Art in Toronto, as founder and director. His recitals have been one of the features of the musical season.

Poetry of words seemed as essential a means of expression to Mr. Furlong as poetry of sound and vision. His published works have placed him among the recognized American poets and are best represented in the second edition of his volume, Echoes of Memory. His poem, Mystery, has already found its place as one of the greatest poems of American literature.

Mr. Furlong is survived by two sons, Major Charles Wellington Furlong, who was one of the President's party on his overseas trip and Atherton Bernard Furlong, Jr., of Cincinnati. Services were held in Toronto where a large concourse of friends and students paid their last tribute to their beloved master. During the summer of 1918, Mr. Furlong spent his vacation in Norway.

Uppers are being stitched in the Carroll-Jellerson Shoe Co. branch factory at South Paris. Some twelve operators and a foreman are taking the separate parts and making them ready for the lasters. As experienced help is secured, the amount sent over will increase. This move is to accommodate the women operators from that town who have been greatly inconvenienced in reaching their work at the Norway factory. Considerable work has been sent out of town in the past, to be stitched, and this change will give an opportunity to increase the help here without crowding the room.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Dunn entertained over the week-end, several relatives from Massachusetts The guests, who motored from Boston included, Allen W. Hamilton, a prominent Boston druggist, his wife and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Y. Miles of Commonwealth Ave. Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Coy of Medford.

Rev. O. L. Stone occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon. No settled pastor has been secured to take the place of Rev. G. Howard Newton, who recently resigned.

Several from the local Red Cross chapter plan to attend the state meeting at Portland this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Livingstone Farrand, executive leader of the American Red Cross, James Jackson and Cheney C. Jones will address the meeting. This gathering is to prepare the way for the big membership drive later.

Edward E. Libby returned to the shoe factory Monday after a vacation of three weeks. A part of the time was spent with work about his premises but he found time to visit in Portland and other places. Hs health has improved during the short vacaton.

A SERIES OF SURPRISES

Hamlin D. Brown of Watertown, Mass. and elsewhere, was in this vicinity last week. After selling his Cando products, he called on us and we spent an agreeable time in talk and newspaper reminiscences.

Much to my surprise, Hamlin and "we" were born in the same town, Landon, N. H., "we" got there a few years before he did, consequently nearer the reward for services rendered. Mr. Brown is something of a newspaper man. For years we've read his interesting letters in the Laconia, N. H. News and Critic and wished we could find someone who could write such good stuff for our paper. We have been guilty of stealing when his writings referred to Oxford County and its people.

Another surprise came when told that the Egyptian Deodorizer and Aerofume of his company was the perfected idea of the late Fred C. Briggs of South Paris and that he was acquainted with the Briggs family into the Penfold branches and that Fred at one time was an owner in the Paul Manufacturing of Boston which precede the Cando Company of which he is now president.

Mr. Brown's sister, Clara, worked in the same millinery shop years ago in Pittsfield, N. H., with the Mrs. Editor. So here was another tie that binds and surprises. Neither of us could recall the name of C. C. Cashman who had something to do in newspaper activities in the Suncook Valley thirty years ago. Altogether we had a pleasant evening and morning and wrung from Mr. Brown a promise to come again.

Of course we gave him a Can Handle. It would have been impolite to have done otherwise. His instinct for selling could not be restrained and he "took an order" for us from the first firm he met on the Kennebec. Thus this is sometimes what you get by casting bread upon the water. It came as another surprise.

The man who is really trying to reduce the h. c. l. in Norway says his competitors say, "He steals his meat and gives short weight so as to make a profit."

A. C. Bradeen, who lives in the village and farms extensively near the Waterford line on the Norway side, raised potatoes worth mentioning. The product from three hills of the Green Mountain variety weighed 25 pounds and every spud well shaped and smooth. Unfortunately only a small patch worked over time, the remainder held up to an average yield and no more.

Leon Stevens, the boy who received a compound fracture of his right ankle in an automobile accident at the Norway branch crossing near Burnham & Morrill Co. cannery, is gaining rapidly at the Central Maine General hospital. He moves about in a wheel chair and the injury is healing without indications of serious trouble in the future.

Stephen A. Bradeen lost his bicycle between 11.30 Saturday evening and 7 o'clock Sunday morning, Oct. 12. The machine disappeared from the veranda where it had been kept nights during the summer. No trace of the wheel or the person responsible for its disappearance has been found.

The Browning Reading Club met with Mrs. Annie Favor, Monday evening. Mrs. Thirza Lovejoy gave a paper "The Descendents of Confucius." Jennie Baker will be the hostess at the next meeting on Oct. 27. Members will respond at roll call with selections from Dickens. Miss Baker will renew the writings of Dickens.

The anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt's birthday on Friday, Oct. 24, will be observed in the Norway-Waterford-Oxford schools as suggested by State Superintendent, Augustus O. Thomas. This will be a Roosevelt Memorial and American Day with a program including patriotic songs, salute to the flag, a talk on Roosevelt and a discussion of Americanism.

The carpenter work on Charles G. Blake's new veranda is practically completed and Freeman Smith has built cement steps.

Forest Longley spent Saturday and Sunday with his class mate, Edwin B. Dunn.

The Elizabeth Crockett Blake Tent D. of V. have postponed their supper which was to be held Friday evening on account of the Grange supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lovejoy aré in Portland for several days. They will meet their daughter, Charlotte Lovejoy, there, who is returning from a week's vacation in Boston and vicinity.

store of F. P. Stone, where several small articles were taken. It appeared that he had been at the state school for boys for a term, and had been in numerous mix-ups. After a thorough examination Justice Morrill said that a reformatory was the proper place for the boy, but as we have none, he imposed a sentence of one year in the county jail on one indictment, and the other was continued for sentence.

Mrs. Emma Marston of Paris pleaded guilty to an indictment for adultery with Frank E. Goff, the respondent in previous indictments. The case was continued for sentence, and she was released on her own recognizance.

Arthur Watson pleaded not guilty to an indictment for assault on a girl of seven years with intent to commit rape. Watson was asked if he had a lawyer, and he said he didn't know.

Katherine Mudgett, indicted for adultery, had previously been arraigned and pleaded guilty, and was released with the understanding that she was to return to Vermont whence she came. It is said a return to Maine would give any officer authority to make an immediate arrest.

Daniel Smith of Porter was arraigned on an indictment charging assault with intent to commit rape upon a woman of twenty-one years, three separate offences on successive days being charged. Smith is a man 59 years of age, and by those who know him is said to be of somewhat defective intellect. After an unsatisfactory examination which brought out little or no response, Judge Morrill sentenced him to not less than five nor more than eight years in state prison.

The so called Jacobs manslaughter case occupied the time Tuesday until four o'clock in the afternoon. An hour later the jury brought in a verdict.

This case which is the first of its kind to be tried in Oxford County was the outcome of a collision between a way freight train going toward Portland on the Grand Trunk Railway and a Sedan Ford car en route for Lewiston. It occurred on the afternoon of May 10, 1919 at Coy's crossing between Welchville and Mechanic Falls. One of the passengers, Mrs. Fred G. Young of Norway, was instantly killed; her daughter, Georgia, injured and another passenger, Stephen Smith, received cuts and bruises which required medical attention for some weeks. The owner and driver, William W. Jacobs who became respondent in this case, escaped with only a severe shaking up. The motor car was completely wrecked.

Prosecution for the state was directed by County Attorney Frederick R. Dyer. The respondent was represented by Alton C. Wheeler and Charles F. Whitman, Mr. Wheeler conducting the examination of the witnesses.

Medical examiner Herman L. Bartlett was the first witness called by the state. He testified to being called and reached the scene of the accident abut 4.30 o'clock. Mrs. Young's body was discovered on the east side of the track near the rails, about twenty-two feet south of the crossing. After a superficial examination of the remains, the body was ordered to Leroy Spiller's undertaking rooms at Norway. A thorough examination there revealed many compound fractures and a fractured skull which in his opinion was the cause of her death.

J. H. Stuart of South Paris, a civil engineer, who took measurements and drafted a plan of the immediate vicinity on June 19, produced figures and explained their surface condition from six hundred and more feet west of the fatal crossing. The Coy buildings, with shade trees and a small orchard which might have obstructed the view some distance from the railroad was located on the plan and explained in detail. He located the whistle post as one-fourth of a mile distant. On cross examination, Mr. Stuart stated the highway descended slightly to a culvert over a brook which must be crossed before reaching the track a few rods ahead. This sag was seven and a half feet lower than the crossing. So far as he could see, a traveler had practically a clear view of the railroad for a long distance.

Warren G. Emery of Portland, the engineer on the local or way freight, stated the usual signal by whistle was sounded at the post and the automatic bell started. He observed the automobile on the highway which runs on a slight angle with the track and noticed both car and train were traveling at about the same speed. Between fifteen and eighteen miles per hour was being made by the local at that time. As a precaution he again sounded the required signal by whistle. When he realized no notice was apparently taken of his warnings, he sounded several sharp blasts and threw on the emergency air brakes. This was within a hundred and fifty feet of the crossing. Both came together and the train was stopped, the locomotive being about two hundred feet below the crossing. He observed wreckage scattered on the east side of the track and found the running gear and frame of the automobile hanging on the pilot. He also found Mrs. Young's body near the rail and assisted in removing Mr. Smith from the demolished auto top. The witness testified to favorable weather for observation with practically no wind.

Wallace E. Austin of Gorham, N. H., a fireman on the locomotive corroberated the engineer in his statements regarding the signal at the whistle post; the bell put in operation and the emergency applied. He also helped in caring for the injured. Busy with his work, he didn't notice the automobile until the train stopped.

Walter H. Russell, the brakeman, riding in the cab gave testimony in accord with the engineer and fireman.

Clarence Anderson of Portland, the conductor, riding in the caboose, heard no signals and realized nothing unusual until the emergency quickly slacked the train's speed. He stated they carried twenty-eight loaded cars and four "empties" with every brake working properly. Rushing forward, he observed the wreck and assisted the injured. He summoned a physician and undertaker from Mechanic Falls and reported the accident to the proper railway officials from the McCoy farm house. The witness also moved the body from the rails so the train could continue.

Dan J. McLearn of Yarmouthville, the rear brakeman, was riding some ten cars behind the tender and testified to the three signals and sudden application of the brakes. He also assisted in extricating Mr Smith from the wrecked auto top not far from the cattle guard.

Stephen Smith of Norway related the facts about engaging the respondent to make the trip to Lewiston at a fixed price As seated, Mr. Jacobs was on the front seat behind the steering wheel with the witness at his side. The young daughter was on the seat behind the driver with Mrs. Young back of Mr. Smith. So far as he observed, the only window down, or open a few inches, was on his side. They approached the crossing at moderate speed and saw no train or heard the whistle. He remembered no conversation or outcries from the other occupants that would lead him to believe they saw or heard anything unusual. Events were clear in his mind to the time when they reached the edge of the crossing, beyond that he realized nothing more until being assisted from the wreckage. During cross examination, the witness frankly admitted passing over two railway crossings between Norway and this one, and that Mr. Jacobs had exercised proper care.

Henry W. Coy, aged 80 years and resides with his son on the Coy homestead, testified to hearing the whistles and seeing the speeding automobile while cultivating some distance south of the highway. He noticed the relative distance between the two, and stopped work, believing an accident inevitable. Mr. Coy was certain nothing could obstruct the view of a traveler in the highway within several hundred feet of the crossing.

Charles F. Whitman, one of the counsel for the defense opened the case and briefly outlined the nature of the evidence to be presented. Mr. Wheler conducted the direct examination of Mr. Jacobs who was the only one called to the stand. Three lady witnesses were sworn, but their testimony was not used.

William H. Jacobs, aged 59, of South Paris testified to events leading up to the fatal trip. He has operated cars of various makes in the past seven or eight years and the Ford Sedan had been in his possession but a short time. He had a driver's license and permit to carry passengers. Whether or not more than one window was open in the car on this trip he couldn't state. Usually two were used for ventilation, but at this time he wasn't sure about that fact. The witness mentioned the rough conditions of the highway and especially at the approach to the crossing. He had been running some distance in high gear and did not remember changing before the crash. Owing to the fact that the passenger train from Portland to Island Pond was about due from the south, he gave no thought to the northern direction. His mind was concentrated on the rough highway; a possible meeting with the fast mail train and the noise from his engine. If the freight signalled, it passed unnoticed and made no conscious mental impression. He heard no remarks or comments from his passengers, which might indicate they realized the approaching danger.

After recovering consciousness from the shock the witness found himself on his hands and knees in the ditch still clinging to the rim of the steering wheel, and only slightly hurt. He helped the trainmen with the injured, and afterward phoned to Norway for an auto to convey them home. After reaching town he rendered all possible assistance to the family and remained with Mr. Smith until his wounds were dressed and the sufferer made comfortable.

According to Mr. Jacobs, the wreckage was scattered at least two hundred and sixty feet from the point of contact. In his judgment the machine was struck just back of the middle portion, as a dent in that part of the body not destroyed would indicate. Although carrying no speedometer, he was certain his speed was not over fifteen miles per hour and perhaps less. Direct examination showed his driver's license had been revoked after the accident.

The jury occupied nearly an hour and Justice Morrill's charge was brief and to the point. He clearly defined "involuntary" manslaughter which might result through carelessness, as alleged by the state. Important features in the testimony were emphasized, and stories not by sworn testimony were to be forgotten.

After being out an hour, the verdict of manslaughter through negligence was returned.

Mike Shimanski of Mexico, who had pleaded not guilty in the Rumford Municipal Court to stealing a pair of roosters from Frank Denskuf, also of Mexico, was placed on trial. The state was represented by County Attorney Dyer and Aretas E. Stearns of Rumford appeared for the defendent. The complainant Deputy Sheriff Leon M. Small of Mexico, testified to following a trail of feathers from the plaintiff's poultry yard down and across several streets to the respondent's home. A search of the immediate premises revealed no poultry, dead or alive. Entrails and hens' feet were discovered in Swift River, a short distance back of Shimanski's domicile. On cross examination, the witness was unable to state the sex or swear the evidence was once a part of Denskuf's living property.

Frank Denskuf in broken Italian told his story, but as real facts bearing directly on the case were obtained with difficulty, an interpreter assisted materially.

After one round of air beating, the district attorney suggested the case be not prossed and it was so ordered.

Michael X. Meckus of Chicago, Ill. was arraigned Wednesday forenoon and pleaded not guilty to blasphemy. Eight counts made a volumnous indictment charging him with blaspheming the name of God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit and ridiculing the canonical scriptures. He was also charged with holding in public contempt the christian religion and organized government.

The utterances as specified in the indictment are alleged to have been spoken by the defendant during a series of public lectures at Rumford in St. Rocco Hall, beginning on Sept. 6, 1919 and continuing several days. It is furthermore charged he appeared before the Rumford Lithuanian Club and uttered the alleged incriminating words in the Lithuanian language and illustrated his subjects with stereopticon slides.

County Attorney Dyer appeared for the state with John B. Mikalouskac of Boston, formerly a Boston American reporter, as aid in translating and understanding the language. F. A. Morey of McGillicuddy & Morey of Lewiston, and F. J. Bagocius of Boston appeared for the defendant.

As the witnesses could understand or speak little English, Abe Stern of Rumford acted as interpreter during the trial, and practically all testimony Wednesday was secured with the interpreter for a go-between.

Eight witnesses testified for the state and were present during one or more lectures when all, or a part of the alleged blasphemous words in the indictment were uttered. The stereopticon pictures were described, which were probably copies from the great masters representing sacred art. Explanations accompany many views were alleged to have distorted the commonly known meaning of the subjects into a mockery of the Divine Spirit which they convey.

According to the state's witnesses, the meetings were attended by some three or four hundred men, women and children from the Lithuanian population. Witnesses stated many utterances charged in the indictment were received with laughter and applause.

Some confusion existed during the cross examination by Mr. Morey and apparent discrepancies in statements were common during this ordeal under the severe handicap. There was a general agreement in the main facts, but the individuals faculty to observe and remember details, followed the mental law common to human minds everywhere.

In opening for the defense, Mr. Morey stated to the jury that they were in a unique position. So far as his knowledge of the state's court records went, this was the first case of its knid to be tried in Maine. Passing to the defendant he gave a brief history of Mr. Mockus' life after coming to America in his early years. From the coal mines, by dint of hard study, he entered the lecture field. Religious subjects were his favorite themes with broad views concerning the church with its teachings in his native land.

Undoubtedly the lecture at Rumford had been received in the wrong spirit and misunderstood by a few in the audience. Witnesses would show the alleged words in the eight counts, were misconstrued and not in any sense an attack on the christian religion or the tenets of the christian church.

Twenty witnesses were called by the defense and five had been heard when court suspended at 5.30 in the afternoon.

The five had attended the course of lectures more or less regularly and understood the language. They failed to hear anything disproving the divinity of Christ or of his divine conception as alleged in the indictment. None could remember hearing any expression detrimental to our form of government as charged. A number stated "Tzars and Counts" were frequently mentioned as bad examples to follow.

County Attorney Dyer in his cross examination brought out several interesting facts concerning the witness who had testified. The lecturer had been engaged by the club organization to give his entertainments, and they to pay his expenses. One witness was the secretary and acted as usher. Another on the stand was also a member of the club and collected tickets. The remainder were members but attended only as spectators. Only one was a naturalized citizen and three claimed to be socialists. Three were occupied with other matters during a portion of the lectures which they attended, therefore were not positive whether or not certain blasphemous phrases were used on certain evenings as alleged by the state. Furthermore, it was learned through testimony that three had contributed money to a fund as applied for counsel fees in defending Mr. Mockus.

A magazine and book said to have been offered for sale by the lecturer during his meetings was submitted by the state during the cross examination. Their contents were not revealed at that time.

It is expected the case will be ready for the jury Thursday. Several important matters follow and the term may close before Friday night.

Mrs. Harry Patch went to Portland, Thursday and attended part of the State Sunday School Convention meetings.

Free Bed Endowed by L. M. Mann

It is not generally known that a free bed in the Central Maine General Hospital at Lewiston has been endowed by Lewis M. Mann of West Paris. This is a permanent free bed endowed with a gift of $5000, accepted by the directors of the hospital, the benefit to be administered as follows.

"First. That any employee or any member of any employee of the firm of Lewis M. Mann & Son, or its successors, receive the benefit or use of said free bed, and

"Second. If not in use by such employee or the member of a family of such employee, then any worthy inhabitant not financially able and not a town charge of one of the towns of Paris, Woodstock, or Milton Plantation receive the benefit or use of said free bed, and

"Third. If not in use by either of the above, then any worthy person who is not financially able to pay shall have the benefit or use of such free bed, preference being given to that portion of Greenwood covered by West Paris R. F. D. No. 3 or other near-by residents of West Paris."

In accepting the gift the directors voted that Mr. Mann's generous offer be accepted, and that the secretary so notify Mr. Mann and express the appreciation of the directors for his generosity.

Application for the benefit of this free bed in all cases are made to the superintendent of the Central Maine General Hospital, Lewiston.

A daylight saving bill will be presented at the special session of the Maine State Legislature in November. The bill provides that the clocks in the state be advanced one hour on the last Sunday in March and set back on the last Sunday in October.

RESTORES VITALITY

Gives Strength to the Nervously Weak and Run-Down.

Peptiron is both medicine and food for the blood and nerves. It is in full accord with advanced science as to the proper treatment of anemic and neurasthenic conditions, in which the need of more and better nourishment is so apparent. It combines iron and manganese with nux, celery, pepsin and other tonics and digestives. It supplies the deficiency of red blood corpuscles in anemia, repairs the waste of nerve tissue in nervousness, gives color and stamina, and restores vitality.

"I was run down and nervous. Peptiron has done me great good." Serena Rifenburg, Tivoli, N. Y.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Pursuant to a license from the Honorable Addison E. Herrick, Judge of Probate for the County of Oxford, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises in the so called "Haley Neighborhood" in Fryeburg, on Saturday, November 8th, 1919, at two o'clock in the afternoon, the undivided interest of which the late John D. Towle died seized and possessed in the homestead farm and buildings thereon, situated in said Haley Neighborhood, and known as the John Towle place.

JOSEPH A. TOWLE,
Administrator of the estate of John D. Towle.
Fryeburg, October 6th, 1919. 41-43

For perjury, the president of a Boston Fish Market Corporation was fined $500 and also to serve one year in jail.

Sportsmen, stop a moment and reflect—last year you remember, a warning was sent out by nearly every paper in the state, warning against shooting unless you were sure of your game, but at the last moment, in spite of all warning, the trigger was pulled only to find a person had been mistaken for a deer and you may have caused a life to be cut off in the prime of life. To some who read this warning, it may bring to mind days of agony as the result of that hasty shot. To others it may cause a second glance at the supposed game and save a life—who knows? If every precaution is taken when sighting game and each hunter uses all diligence in manipulating his fire arms—the total of deaths caused by accident will be less for the fall of 1919.

WOODSTOCK

The town of Greenwood and Milton Plantation have joined this town in their plans for a celebration to the returned soldiers, Nov. 1. It is planned to make this the biggest event ever held in Woodstock and a day to be long remembered by the "boys." A large committee is enthusiastically working on the program and promise to make this celebration surpass that held on the hundredth anniversary of the town. A band of twenty-five pieces will lead the parade and also give two concerts. The parade which will start at one o'clock will be more than a mile long with the boys in khaki in a prominent position. An army truck with guns and other equipment will arrive the day before from Fort McKinley, soldiers will accompany the truck to give demonstrations and explain the various types of guns. Meals will be served by the grange which means that there will be ample food for all. Everyone in the three towns will be here to let the boys know that they are glad to have them back again.

Stanley Bartlett '20 was elected captain of the high school track team. In the dual meet with Paris high Saturday at the high school grounds, Paris won by a large score.

The fine large silver loving cup won by the class of '20 at the annual interclass track meet last Wednesday is on display at the store of C. C. Dudley. This cup was given by a friend and is to remain the property of the winning class for one year and then is to be competed for again until won three years in succession when it will become the permanent property of that class.

Homer S. Farnum, a graduate of Woodstock High School in the class of 1919, a freshman at the University of Maine, won the two mile run at the interclass track meet at Orono Saturday. Farnum is a strong contender for a position on the varsity cross country team.

Raeburn Hathaway has been appointed advertising manager of the monthly paper to be issued by the Woodstock Chamber of Commerce. He will begin his duties this week.

State superintendent of schools, Augustus O. Thomas has sent out a formal request to the schools in Maine to fittingly observe the anniversary of the late president, Theodore Roosevelt on Friday, Oct. 24.

MOOSEHEAD LAKE LETTER

Note—The next letter will have to do with things seen and heard while selling Economy Handles in Aroostook County.

September 28th—a beautiful day. Everyone "Went Round the Island" that is all but Walter and I. We went to Treasure Island and carefully examined its underpinning. With umbrella over head I carefully examined the rocks under water and made a few discoveries.

No doubt at some remote age the indians buried their dead here. The relics found are many varied. More than two dozen fine specimens of the Rock Age of men's existence have been found. I have taken more than half that number. The island is being washed away and in a few years it will be gone. It is much smaller than ten years ago when I first visited it. Robert Greenleaf of Alberqurque, N. M. found the first Indian implements nine years ago. Dr. W. J. Long got some as did Prof. Moose head of Amherst College, Dr. Hagger and others.

More have been found at Kineo Point than at any other place about the Lake. There the aborigines had their principal workshop for making stone implements of all kinds. A great number of imperfect ones can even now be found. Some of the roads about the Point are liberally paved with flint chips made by the Indians. Excavating for foundation, pipes and drains have brought to light many good specimens. A few years ago I got a number of perfect specimens from a tiny arrow point to battle-ax that weighed several pounds. This year I got a rude made or unfinished cleaver and a rubber golfball lying within a foot of each other. The two represents the lapse of thousands of years in civilization.

Spencer Narrows has produced many specimens. There are a half dozen different places showing where stone implements were made. Had not the water of the lake been raised many more places could be found.

The water was lower by some two feet than for the past eight years and I was able to find specimens in eight different localities. In fact almost any where I was able to get to the old channels: in the Thoroughfare and at Spencer Narrows. Even Gull Island responded in a small way. My examinations were confined to the Beaver Creek Islands, West Shore of the main land, the islands in the Thoroughfare. On "Sunken Island" a much water worn utensil was found and flint chips on several other islands.

At Spenser Narrow's a delicately wrought arrow-head seven-eight by two and one eight inches was found by Walter Smith. I got several larger ones. At Snake Island one four and a quarter by one and a quarter with thickness of one fourth inch was found. Several cleavers, goagas and celts were discovered. One stone vessel (unfinished) that so plainly shows the chisel marks that would lead one to believe it was of recent date and made with iron tools. This was found away from the action of water and sand. One side only of the rock had been worked. Both sides of the other specimen had been worked. They were found on islands four miles apart though both are made of the same kind of rock.

Twenty-four reasonable good specimens were taken during my stay. I worked a few hours each day when weather would permit. Going and coming I fished and if truth must be told I lost my biggest fish and did it very foolishly. I was told not to do it and I disregarded the warning. I put on a heavy-copper-wired-gay-beaded two-spoon arrangement made by Mr. Hanson of Auburn, Me. and given to me some years ago. It was a dazzling affair and when the big fellow took it he lead up fairly well but in making his fight near the boat twisted off the wire and was free. This is what you get by trying experiments. I should have known better and I did know better as I told Walter when I put on the rigging if I got hold of a big fish I'd loose it. The fact is I didn't expect to hook a big one. I make no estimate as to its weight it was simply a big fish square tail.

Mt. Katahdin looked white as though covered with snow the first of October. Maybe it is like Elgins' big deer so old that it has grown white.

A big gasoline driven boat came to the Sugar Island wharf and left its passengers to take the line boat for Greenville. Their engine was acting badly. The two men worked on it for hours closely watched by Walter as an interested spectator. In the afternoon while out fishing and the men still working on the engine Walter volunteered the remark "that the men could work on the engine for two weeks as they had been doing and it would not run. It was out-of-time and they were tinkering on the cam-shaft with no idea of what was needed." The boat left the pier late in the afternoon and they probably blundered on to what was out of fix and fixed it. Walter seemed to enjoy their perplexities but offered no suggestion while on board of the disabled craft.

I met Dr. Easton and wife of Portland at Spencer Narrows. He assisted in making fast to the pier and in getting ashore. He is president of Maine Optometrist Association and is acquainted with V. W. Hills of Norway. He is also a cousin of our dentist, A. W. Easton, who is associated with Dr. F. E. Drake of Norway.

A road is in the making from Greenville to Lily Bay. Fourteen miles and much dynamite is used. Some of the explosions three miles away rattle the glass in the camp where I am writing. Three crews are working and it is expected the road will be finished next season. The Great Northern Paper Co. are building it and when finished will have about 50 miles of turn-pike over which truck and autos will travel from Greenville to Ripogenous.

Thus the Coburn Steamboat Company will receive another staggering blow.

It knocked most of the profits out of the company when the railroad was built to Kineo and Rockwood become the port of entry to the Moosehead Wilderness instead of Greenville. The company has struggled along with small crews for some years and no doubt have paid no dividends to its owners. Their fleet of boats—a half-dozen—look it and badly need repairs. The loss of the Lily Bay and beyond business is a hard blow for them.

The opening of the road will give Lily Bay more prominence on the map at the expense of Greenville and the Steamboat Company. Such are the changes. It can't be helped. When flying machines come into general use it will injure railroads and automobiles. This is in accord with the laws of progress.

Next season I'll expect to house the auto at Lily Bay instead of at Greenville Junction and Elgin will come with the Sea Bird, Hattie and take me to his camps. It will reduce the water travel five miles and increase Elgin's profits at the expense of the Coburn Steamboat Co. and Henry Bartly. It will save time and that is what we are all striving to do excepting organized labor which is trying to kill time and reverse the economic plan of civilization.

The above sounds like an editorial and I like to have such things occasionally appear in print. It gives character to the paper, I am told. Hence the effort has been announced as an editorial but where the maelstrom of progress comes in I fail to see. The Great Northern Paper Co. is benefited by the new road and the Coburn Steamboat Co. is injured. That is about all. Such changes are constantly occurring and can properly be called economic evolution, not revolution. This explanation closes editorial comment in this column.

Mr. Nelson of New Jersey, who owns a beautiful camp in Sandy Bay had a pair of thoroughbred Airedales. They were some bother and he gave them to Irving Stevens of Spencer Narrows Camps. I saw them when there and they reminded me so much of Jack and Zubie I fell in love with them and half bargained for a pup next spring. Have said nothing to mother about it as she positively says: "No more dogs for her they are too short lived." I notice flowers on the graves of Jack and Zubie at the farm. and I think Mother put them there though she will not admit it.

I have not seen Old Ephraim, though am told he is still on the island. Elgin has seen him several times this summer. He has become so old as to turn gray and is said to be very savage and independent. I saw big pointed tracks on the shore and about the camps the other morning, but Elgin says they were not Ephraim's as he had lost the east half of his right front foot. These footprints were perfect. Elgin knows and that settles it. The footprint was so big I thought it must be made by the old fellow that everybody has been trying to kill for the past twenty years. The story of Old Ephraim is either a myth or the old buck leads a charmed life as every hunter has been shooting at him ever since I knew anything about Sugar Island. I have never seen him but have seen a good many small deer hereabouts.

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BINZER, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binzer that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. BROWNFIELD

Glen Ellis Gray.

The funeral of Glen Ellis Gray was held at the home of his mother, Emma B. Gray McLucas in Brownfield, Oct. 16th. Mr. Gray was born in Brownfield, Jan. 29, 1889, died Oct. 13th from a hemorrhage, the result of a terrible accident the same day. Mr. Gray worked on the Maine Central Railroad as brakeman. He has had bad heart spells for some time and it is believed to have been one of these that caused him to fall from the engine Monday afternoon, crushing one leg, breaking the other and receiving the internal injuries which caused his death.

He leaves a wife, Leah M., three children, Harold B., age 15 Lester M. 8, Glen Ellis, age 4. He belonged to the Brother hood of Railroad Trainmen. He was also an honored member of the Odd Fellows, having been through the chairs and was Noble Grand the second time. His wife and self were also members of the Langdon Rebecca Lodge. Mr. Gray had only that day returned from a two weeks vacation.

SOUTH WATERFORD

Bear Mt. Grange

Bear Mountain Grange, No. 62, met in regular session Saturday evening, October 11, with Worthy Master W. K. Hamlin in the chair. The entertainment at this meeting and also at the one on September 27th consisted of a roll call responded to by each member in some way, each response to occupy at least one minute. This proved very interesting. Many of the members named their birthplace, telling something for which the locality is especially noted. Several songs by the chorus during the program were much enjoyed. Past master L. E. McIntire gave as his contribution a short talk on the labor situation.

"Labor saving devices on the farm indoors and out" was the topic for discussion at the last meeting opened by Bro. Clinton Kilgore and followed by many of the members. Many interesting and helpful ideas were brought out by this subject.

For the next meeting, Bro. McIntire is to open the question "What is the State doing to especially benefit its farmers?" After the meeting a sandwich supper with hot coffee was served in the dining room. The next meeting will be on Saturday evening, October 25th.

School Notes

The pupils of the Freshman class held a class meeting Friday. The following officers were elected:
Pres.—Celia Barrett.
Vice Pres.—Muriel Mayor.
Secretary—Margaret Akers.
Treasurer—James Reed.
Executive Com.—Maystelle Farris, Geneva Brackett, Irene Perkins, Hollis Kemp, Methyl Edwards.

Water has been piped from the well in the yard to the laboratory for the use of the science class.

Now that the piano has been paid for and water installed, there is still one more thing needed: electric lights. You who have been to school at O. H. WOODSTOCK

Specal Town Meeting

A special town meeting will be held next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to see what action the town will take in regard to lighting the streets, if a power line can be secured for Woodstock. This will be one of the most important town meetings ever held, because to a large extent the action taken at this meeting will determine to a large extent whether Woodstock is to become a larger town, whether we shall grow in population, wealth and industries and become one of the large towns of Oxford county or continue to remain as we are with but very little growth or progress.

It is only by the most united and determined effort possible that we can hope to secure electric light and power and unless we have this, Woodstock is placed at a disadvantage compared with hundreds of other towns and our new chamber of Commerce greatly handicapped in its work for the welfare of Woodstock. With electric light and power all sorts of possibilies for growth and progress are open to our town and a bright future becomes possible.

Let us think these things over and be sure whatever way we vote that we are honestly voting for what we believe is for the best interests of old Woodstock.

It is not an impossibility or wild dream that electric light and power can be brought here. It can be done, and all that is necessary is for the citizens of Woodstock to work together for it.

Our tax rate is high to be sure. It might be a few cents higher for a few years. But if by paying a few dollars extra would mean a better market, a better town in every way wouldn't it be worth while? Let us think it over. Its up to us.
